

PASTOR ANDREW SOULE

Rev. Andrew Paul Soule was born to Erik and Lori Soule on September 28th, 1989. He was baptized and confirmed at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Princeton, MN. In 2012, Pastor Soule graduated from Bethany Lutheran College with a Bachelor of Arts in History. He then enrolled at Bethany Lutheran Theological Seminary, where he received his Master's of Divinity. He vicared under the Rev. Craig Ferkenstad at Norseland Lutheran Parish, St. Peter, MN. In June of 2016, he was united in marriage with his loving wife, Catharine Webber. In July of 2016, he was ordained into the Office of the Holy Ministry and was installed as pastor at Rock Dell and Our Savior's Lutheran Churches of Belview, MN, where he served for the past seven years. During their time in Belview, the Soule family was blessed with three children, twins: Carol and Isaac (November 2019), and Mary (July 2023). Pastor Soule is currently a PhD student at Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, MO, studying church history. Pastor Soule has previously been an online instructor for the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Nyamira, Kenya. He has also served the Synod on the Ad Hoc Rural Outreach Committee, has been involved with Camp Indianhead both as a counselor and as a pastor, and is currently a member of the ELS Historical Society. Pastor Soule has a passion for learning and enjoys all things history, music, and theology. He has a deep appreciation for hymnody and liturgy and strives to maintain the theological heritage of the old Norwegian Synod in his ministry. Pastor Soule is excited to serve God's people at Mt. Olive.
